

915 Douglas
St. Joseph, MO 65505

DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Second Harvest Community Food Bank is committed to protecting our donors' privacy. Our donors expect that we will use their support and personal information wisely. We value our donors' trust and we recognize that maintaining this trust requires us to be transparent and accountable to our supporters and the public at all times. This policy will help ensure that all personal information is properly collected, used only for the purposes for which it is collected, and is irretrievably disposed of in a secure and timely manner when it is no longer needed.

In this Policy, "personal information" means information that is recorded in any form, both fact and opinion and that can be used to distinguish, identify or contact a specific individual. It does not include publicly obtainable information such as names, addresses and telephone numbers. "Donor" refers to any individual or organization that contributes funds, securities or property to Second Harvest. For purposes of this policy, "Employee" describes both paid and volunteer workers for Second Harvest.

It is vital for Second Harvest to have knowledge about its supporters and those people who provide the necessary funding. In order to be successful during a campaign, strong donor relationships must be established and cultivated. Information is the key to any relationship. Due to the sensitive nature of personal information disclosed by a Donor or obtained by Second Harvest, Second Harvest shall at all times abide by this Policy.

Accountability

Second Harvest and its employees are responsible for all Donor personal information in our possession. Each department of Second Harvest shall establish, maintain, and revise practices and procedures to ensure compliance with this Policy. Every reasonable precaution shall be taken to protect and preserve the confidentiality of our Donors' personal information. All employees, agents and authorized service providers of Second Harvest are individually required to safeguard each individual Donor's personal information. Any outside contractors or third party service providers are selected with due care and must abide by this Policy. External service providers shall be required to agree to protect any personal information of Donors, use it for only the purposes set out in the scope of the contract with Second Harvest, and to not keep the personal information on file.

Donors may notify Second Harvest of a privacy-related issue or grievance by contacting the Chief Development Officer. We will provide information about our privacy procedures and investigate the complaint. If a problem is discovered during the review, we will take all appropriate steps to correct the problem and revamp our policies and procedures if necessary.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

Second Harvest lawfully and fairly collects and uses personal information only for certain purposes that are identified to the Donor. We may use it to establish and manage our relationship with a Donor, as well as providing requested information. Personal information can also help us understand a Donor and identify preferences and expectations. The main uses will involve raising money to reach our campaign goals and to process gifts and return appropriate receipts. To publicly recognize and thank them for their generosity, we occasionally release a list of our Donors. In such cases, other organizations and third parties will have access to our Donor names and in some cases donation amounts.

Second Harvest holds special events to create publicity for our campaign, thank supporters, and raise funds. At some of these events Employees may obtain personal information. If so, Donors will be advised of this fact and the information related to the event will be disposed of properly when it is no longer needed.

Sharing or Selling of Personal Information

Second Harvest does not sell, trade or rent the information and contents of active Donor files to others. Second Harvest will not share Donor e-mail address to third parties.

Custody and Care of Personal Information

The personal information in our possession shall be kept accurate and up-to-date. Donors may always correct their personal information if they believe that our records are not correct. If a Donor feels that any of our information about them is inaccurate or incomplete, the Donor has the right to ask us to change it or delete it. If a Donor's personal information is incorrect in any way, Second Harvest will make the required changes.

Second Harvest acknowledges that any Donor or Donor prospect has the right to review his or her record maintained by our organization. Donors may request in writing to see personal information about them that is in the possession of Second Harvest. Donors also have the right to know how the information is obtained and used. We will respond to Donor requests within a reasonable time (within 30 days or less) by either providing copies of the documents or access to the information. Second Harvest will generally respond at no charge to the Donor, but depending on the nature of the request and the amount of information requested, we reserve the right to charge a reasonable amount. In some situations, Second Harvest may not be able to provide access to all the personal information held on a Donor. Exceptions will be limited and specific as permitted or required by law, and the reasons for non-disclosure shall be communicated to the requesting party.

Second Harvest will keep Donors' personal information only as long as it is necessary to satisfy the purposes for which it was obtained, or as legally required. Access to Donor file materials containing personal information is restricted to Second Harvest Employees and authorized service providers who need it to do their jobs.

Second Harvest has established appropriate technical, physical and organizational security procedures to protect Donors' personal information against loss, theft, unauthorized use, disclosure, or modification. These procedures will be monitored and reviewed at least annually and when needed to ensure their continued effectiveness. The safeguards employed by Second Harvest include, but may not be limited to, the use of limited access storage areas, locked files, and the use of encryption, secure servers, and computer workstation passwords. Appropriate measures will be undertaken when personal information is destroyed in order to prevent access or inadvertent disclosure to any unauthorized parties.

Website

Users of Second Harvest's internet resources should refer to the website:
www.ourcommunityfoodbank.org